JUDGE BAKER

Dear Editor,

In last week's issue of your paper I was delighted to find the announcement of Judge S. E. Baker as a candidate for Circuit Judge of our district and it is more than a pleasure to me to add a word in his behalf.

From my earliest youth I have known Judge Baker and the more I have known him the more and more I have admired the man. For the benefit of those who may not know, by your permission, I want to submit a few facts and figures relative to the life and character of this man, that "he who reads may learn."

Judge Solomon E. Baker is now in the very prime of life, having been born in the year 1856 and is now 53 years of age. He is a native of Letcher county. By dint of hard labor he obtained a good common school education.

For a number of years he stood high in the profession of teaching and many a young man in the mountains is proud of the fact that what education he has he secured from the able instruction of S. E. Baker. In 1882 he secured a position in the Government service at Washington and for four years was a faithful employee. Even while closely engaged in this work he took course in a law school at the Capital and attended lectures given by some of the brightest literary lights of that period in the nation. At the end of four years he resigned his position and returned to the county of his birth. When he returned our citizens were looking around for suitable timber from which to make a County Judge and their eyes fell upon Mr. Baker and, becoming a candidate, he won over his opponent with votes to spare. He made one of the most popular officials the county has ever had.

Judge Baker is a son of the late Elijah W. Baker, up until a few years ago a popular minister of the Methodist church. From early youth this son was ever a strong adherent to this church and is today a faithful, earnest and active member, doing all in his power to elevate and uplift humanity. Through his efforts, almost alone, the beautiful little Methodist church at this place, has its existence.

In 1892 Judge Baker was admitted to the bar and immediately entered upon the practice of law. He was soon recognized as a leading attorney and today his practice is equal to that of any other man in the district.

But I need not go further in speaking of the merits and qualities and qualifications of this man. Suffice it to say, he stands without a peer. His life is as an open book, neat and clean—page after page may be turned and every one will reveal the beauties that scintilate around the life of a man who knows but to be a patriot for his country and a devotee to his God. Coming as he does from a strong, brave family of Anglo-Saxons he knows no fear except the fear to do wrong, he knows the responsibility of an oath and like our first President when he took the oath to "preserve and protect the Constitution of the United States," when Judge Baker declares he will do a thing we know just what it means.

If this man is elected Circuit Judge of our district next November we know, if he lives, our liberties and our rights and the liberties and rights of every man woman and child in the district will be secure.

From his earliest manhood Judge Baker has been an ardent but not partisan, Republican. He is that yet, but he believes that a man should go on the judicial bench with a proxy from all the people without respect to politics. What a high and holy ambition! Thus a servant for the people and all the people.

Letcher county has never had a Circuit Judge. She is not selfish, but she is one of the four counties in the district, no better than any one of the counties but the equal of either. Judge Baker has not thrown himself into this contest for this high and honorable position but the people of Letcher county and the district have done it and he will win. Good government in the district alone prompts the action and we believe our people will sustain it. In November Letcher county will roll up a monstrous majority for Judge Baker and we ask all of our sister counties in the district to do the same.

Mr. Editor, I have written the above at the earnest solicitation of hundreds of my fellow citizens without respect to politics and hope you will publish it.

Very resp.,

W. W. SERGENT,
Whitesburg, Ky.

The Worst Ever.

Three of the stingiest men in Kentucky were in town Monday. One of them will not drink as much water as he wants unless it's from another man's well. The second forbids any of his family from writing anything but a small hand, as it is a waste of ink to make large letters, and the third stops his clock at night in order to save wear and tear of the machinery. All of them decline to take the Eagle on the ground that it is a terrible strain on their spectacles to read newspapers even in the daytime.

Accepts Position

Miss Mayne Perry, of this place, will be the instructor in music in the East Stone Gap public school for the ensuing session of 1909-10. Miss Perry is a very popular teacher, having taught music for three consecutive years in East Stone Gap, prior to last year, when she taught at Whitesburg, Ky.—Big Stone Gap Post.

Real Trip to the Pole

Would the readers of the Eagle like to imagine themselves standing at the North Pole for awhile? It is ten or more times colder than it ever gets on the coldest day in winter in Eastern Kentucky. The sun has just appeared above the ice-skirted horizon and it is in the month of March.

Just a fiery tip of the sun's upper edge is to be seen. Each day it shows more of its face, gradually winding its way in great circles above the horizon until on June 21 it reaches its highest point, though still but a few degrees above the circle where ice and sky meet. When this maximum altitude is attained the sun begins a descent once more, slowly circling its way down until in September its face disappears below the horizon. For a few days only there is a gloomy twilight, then darkness sets in, relieved only by the fires of Aurora and the faint twinkle of the stars. For a few days each month when there are no storms some light is seen reflected from the moon. At the pole there is no east or west, every point of the compass is south and as has been intimated the sun swings around just above the horizon in great parallel circles illuminating a noon-time that is six months long.

Standing at the pole and examining our compass we find that the needle points south toward a point 1,400 miles away in the direction of Hudson Bay, therefore it will be best to use the sun as our guide rather than our compass. Just before arriving at the earth's apex, or pole, we observed that the sun hung low in the sky and that it revolved like the hands of a great twenty-four hour clock. At the midnight hour the sun was lowest and directly north, while at the noon hour the southern limit is marked. At six o'clock in the morning the sun was in the east and at the same hour in the evening, or at 18 o'clock, it was in the west. It is indeed a wonderland and only those who read and ponder these strange phenomena can appreciate the facts as they are.

Think of living in Northern Russia (the land of the midnight sun) where the great great orb of day never sets! Think of living in a country where you can go to bed even at midnight with the sun shining in at your windows and then think how unreasonable it is for anyone to conclude that the earth on which we live is standing still and the sun running. The philosophy of man has accomplished much, but to compare his knowledge to the great Author of all Philosophy is like comparing the little rivulet to the deep wide ocean.

KENTUCKY KERNELS

Crops of all sorts in Kentucky are reported to be the lightest known in years.

There is strong talk of a full independent ticket for county offices in Perry county.

The authorities of Franklin, Ky., have fixed a fee of $5,000 a year for all persons who desire to run saloons.

Yearling mules sold to Bowling Green parties the past week at $150 each, being the best price paid for sometime.

Kentuckians living out in Oklahoma continue to report very poor crops in that state. Corn will almost be a failure.

J. T. O'Neal, popular politician and attorney of Louisville, is dangerously ill and will undergo an operation in Chicago this week.

It has finally been decided to have a medical branch of the State University at Lexington. An appropriation of $25,000 will be asked at the next session of the Legislature.

Monday morning the State Fair threw open its gates at Louisville and is now on in full blast. It promises to eclipse in every respect all fairs heretofore held in Kentucky.

Dr. Pearson, of Chicago, has announced that he will give $100,000 to Berea College provided the trustees of the school will raise four times the amount of his donation. The doctor says that this will be his last donation of this character.

Another split between the Governor and the members of his official family is reported from Frankfort. This time it is over the election of a Superintendent for the new Capitol and it is very probable that within the next few days the Governor will get another complete turnaround.

A new set of pardoning rules have been sent out by Governor Wilson. He says that no application for restoration to citizenship will be considered within two months of a primary or general election. He further says that the political affiliation of no man will be considered in granting a pardon.

The successfull man is the one who don't let others learn of his mistakes.

Hiram Huggins has got a new oatinoobel which he calls a "run-about." It will run about 40 rods and then they have to git out an fix it.

An Early Morning Walk.

A few mornings ago the writer had occasion to be passing along the upper end of Main street in Whitesburg at a very early hour. Not a soul save myself was stirring. The drip of the morning dew as it fell from leaf and flower alone disturbed the quietude. I walked rapidly along. As I approached the end of the old wooden bridge that spans the lazy waters of the Kentucky a voice full of cadence fell upon my ear. I stopped and listened. It was a voice of prayer that winged its way upon the mountain air. "Oh, God, take care of the widow and the orphan, the poor and the afflicted," wafted out upon the breeze. I passed on, encouraged, knowing that I belonged to that class, and felt better the rest of the day. Need I tell the name of the petitioner? The people of Whitesburg will know but those on the outside may not. It was none other than Judge S. E. Baker and the place was in his own quiet home.

The Poor Old Pole

Last week the Eagle took cognizance of the fact that the North Pole had just been caught napping and allowed itself to be slipped up on and the actual fact of its existence proclaimed to the world. Now comes the news that Explorer Peary has gone up and tacked the stars and stripes to the "old thing," too. We are about to conclude that it won't be a month till a hundred school boys will be right up there on the earth's apex playing leap-frog around the Pole. Why, it won't be any time till just any old fellow will be able to make a trip up there. However, there is some mistake about the matter. Dr. Cook, the first discoverer, claims to have gone up and jerked about two thirds of the pole off, leaving the stump, and carried it away. Peary says the pole was still standing when he got there, that he nailed the stars and stripes to it, and that there were no tracks in the snow indicating that anyone had been tramping around. At least there is some mistake somewhere. Well, it may be true, and if it is someone should make a trip up there in a flying machine and light right on top of the pole. He could get a much better view of the situation.

hundreds of others that have been inspired by nature.

It aids us through life, and the world's progress is due to men who have opened their eyes to nature. Among these is Edison, one of our greater inventors, and do you think his grand name which shines as a brilliant star over our country and his noble work which shall be looked upon; honored and remembered for future generations to come, would have been so had he not been inspired by nature?

No district has a flora more rich in specimens of the common class of flowers. Who can pass through our fields and forests without stopping to pluck and admire the daisy, butter cup, violet, windflower, and dozens of others just as beautiful?

Have you ever thought how the beauties of nature are overlooked, and how inspiring nature is to man? The greatest poet and all our great writers have taken their first cue as a result of a lesson from nature.

Then why should we not awake to the beauties of nature which are so abundant in Eastern Kentucky, and see its steep hills, and rolling plains, its moss covered rocks and high mountains, all covered with forests which seem to connect the earth with the sky?

There is the tall oak, with its spreading branches, and the beautiful tulip tree, which has been such a value to man but has now almost disappeared by the deforestation, which has caused a scanty growth even to the uttermost parts of our country. It is time for us to think and stop being so cruel hearted as to make destruction and desolation of our forests.

And should we not give attention to the beautiful flowers which seem lifeless through the winter and in the early spring time unfold to us their beautiful bloom?

Not forgetting the birds; they are placed here to make us happy and during our melancholy hours we listen to their merriment and song, and why should not this make any san heart glad?

If we could all appreciate nature there would not be so many sad hearts; the children would be merry, our homes would be happy and there would not be so many rude boys and girls. But this should be taught in early childhood. It causes us to be kind hearted to our friends, to revere God, and have sympathy for all things, and without the inspiration of nature we can never live the life we ought to live and be what we ought to be.

The world's best men are those who live nearest to nature's heart. Among them are Moses, Newton, Bryant, and Alice F. Steelman.

NOTICE!

To the Voters of Letcher:
You may have heard it reported that I am off the track for Jailer but it is not true. I am still a candidate and will be until the election in November and mean to do everything in my power to win the race. I came out about three months ago and am sure almost every voter in the county saw my name in the Eagle as a candidate. Will not the voters of the county consider my claim and do all they can for me?

The lower end of the county has not been recognized in an official way for fifteen years and it looks like it is time for us to be honored. So I ask every voter in the county to consider our rights. I am a poor man and am struggling for a living in an honest way, but if you don't think I am the proper man vote for the one you think is the best man. I shall thank everyone in the county who helps me to win this great battle. In the meantime I am.

JURYMEN, DO YOUR DUTY!

At the present term of Circuit Court let Letcher county through her grand and petit juries maintain her well merited reputation for law and order. Its the business of the grand jury, in a consistent way, to ferret out crime and its the province of the others to see that those charged are fairly and properly tried and justice meted out to them. It is not possible for a more important body of men to congregate together than that of the venire as summoned by the sheriff and qualified by the court. They, themselves alone, hold the reigns of justice and precipitate peace and happiness or bloodshed and crime. If our officers together with the juries take care of the little things in a judicious way the big things will seldom come before them. If the judicial authorities in a county would watch out where trouble is imminent and at the first opportunity rigidly enforce the peace warrant prerogative to all concerned much trouble and a great per cent. of crimes would be avoided. The official who after swearing that he will enforce the law begins the work of punishing his enemies and shielding his friends is an example of the dark ages and the sooner he is dethroned by the honest populace the better it will be for the peace loving public. The man who qualifies as a grand juror with a lot of prejudice for some of his neighbors alive in his bosom deserves watching closely by his fellow jurors. The petit juror in the same condition deserves the same. Jury commissioners usually keep a watch-out for those who have had more or less mix-ups in the courts or are known to harbor personal prejudices in their bosoms. When peace and happiness reign and rule in a county courts and juries exist in name only and it is the duty of courts and juries to see that these conditions are maintained.

Announcement.

To the Voters of Letcher county: As many of you have already heard I am a candidate for Assessor of Letcher county to be voted for at the November election 1909. I am a citizen of Millstone Precinct of your county, and as to my qualifications to hold this office I refer you to the good citizens of that precinct. I earnestly plead for your support. You will find my name on the ballot and I ask you to look me up and help me. I hope to see all of you before the election. Resp.,

BIG CROWD

Candidates Galore and Big Speaking at the Court House.

COURT OPENS--LIST OF JURIES

Monday morning at an early hour knots of people from all sections of the county came trooping into town. It was a jolly, happy, laughing crowd. Soon as the tones of the big court bell flowed over the town and settlement the large court room was jammed and soon Judge Lewis in his ever pleasant and plain way was instructing the grand jury. This done they were sent to their room and the petit juries were impaneled. Then the work of the court ended till in the afternoon and the speaking began. For an hour or more the big crowd listened to R. Monroe Fields presenting his claims as the Republican nominee for County Attorney followed by Robert Blair who did the same. Judge S. E. Baker also made a short address urging his claims for election as Circuit Judge. The crowd seemed to enjoy the speeches and left the court room in extremely good humor.

We extend a thousand thanks to our many friends for the excellent encouragement (cash) handed us the first few days of court. Others may have no money but somehow or other our subscribers have.

Jno. P. Back thinks he will be able to announce for Assessor in a few days. Nobody is considered in the running, in fact no one could surely be a candidate without speaking through the people's medium—the Eagle.

The Regular Primitive Baptist Association held at Sandlick last Friday, Saturday and Sunday was well attended. A number of the oldest and best known ministers of that faith and order were present and from all indications peace and harmony prevailed.

Chas. L. Collins and Hays Crase and their families left Tuesday for the far northwest State of Washington to reside. We regret exceedingly to give them up as they are some of our very best citizens. However, the Eagle can fly that far and it will ever hope for their success.

We were glad, not only from a monetary standpoint but from every other standpoint, to meet so many of our friends this week. What a pleasure to meet and congregate our voices and join in pleasant jokes and laughter now

A Clean Man

Outside cleanliness is less than half the battle. A man may scrub himself a dozen times a day, and still be unclean. Good health means cleanliness not only outside, but inside. It means a clean stomach, clean bowels, clean blood, a clean liver, and new, clean, healthy tissues. The man who is clean in this way will look it and act it. He will work with energy and think clean, clear, healthy thoughts.

He will never be troubled with liver, lung, stomach or blood disorders. Dyspepsia and indigestion originate in unclean stomachs. Blood diseases are found where there is unclean blood. Consumption and bronchitis mean unclean lungs.

Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery

prevents these diseases. It makes a man's insides clean and healthy. It cleans the digestive organs, makes pure, clean blood, and clean, healthy flesh.

It restores tone to the nervous system, and cures nervous exhaustion and prostration. It contains no alcohol or habit-forming drugs. Constipation is the most unclean uncleanness. Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets cure it. They never gripe. Easy to take as candy.

and then! We ought to all be good, quiet, sober, law abiding citizens so we can live long and happy.

State Senator H. H. Smith, of Hindman, is attending Circuit Court and jollying with his many friends.

A few days ago Steve Frazier and family returned to this place on a visit to friends. They have been located for sometime at Los Tanos, N. Mex.

The W. R. Holcomb case that attracted so much attention at the last regular court comes up again for trial next Monday. It will be remembered that Holcomb killed Isaac Huff in Harlan county and is being tried here on a change of venue.

Candidates and watermelons were plentiful in town Monday. Some of them were ripe and red while others were green.

Dock Madden of Knott county, an expert watch and clock repairer, is here with a shingle hung out in the Fields building.

Eld. John Cook, formerly of this county but now of Roda, Va. preached to a good sized crowd at the Presbyterian church Monday night.

Just say to every enquirer that the editor of this paper will allow his name to go on the ballot as a candidate for Justice. We have promised and there is no other alternative. As many as choose to do so can also run.

Attorney Jesse C. Morgan, of the Hazard bar, is a familiar figure in the Courthouse this week.

If you came to town and could not pay your subscription you ought to have come and said so. Eh?

"Pud" Breeding, of Breedings Creek, was laughing and talking with his many friends here.

Dr. Collins' little boy at Ben Hur, Ark., is reported greatly improved from typhoid. It is said Dr. Collins will return to Letcher soon.

Well, it is delightful to think ahead just a few weeks. The fine old possum is now getting tumbling fat. We can almost taste him in the air now. Sweet-taters, paw-paws, pumpkins and possums! How do these sound on your stomach?

No Need to Be Alarmed.

ENTERS THE FIELD

Dear Voters of Letcher county: After quietly and carefully investigating the principal portion of this end of the county, it seems that it is the desire of a majority of the voters that I become a candidate for Assessor, so I have decided to ask the voters to support me again. I am a poor crippled man and you know it. Whether deserving or not, you know it. So please come along and let's walk hand in hand and heart to heart. Let the majority of all the good citizens say who shall serve them. Expecting to see everybody between now and November, I am, Very truly,

Limitations of Ignorance.
The man of brains sees difficulties, surmounts or avoids them; the fool knows no difficulties.—L.M. Brainer.

Hung by Wedding Ring.
While a woman named Gregson of Swadlincote, England, was placing a penny in her gas meter she slipped, and her wedding ring caught on a nail in the wall. She remained hanging for some time before help arrived. The ring had to be removed by a jeweler before the doctor could dress her injured hand.

Near Death in Big Pool.

It was a thrilling experience to Mrs. Ida Soper to face death. "For years a severe lung trouble gave me intense suffering," she writes, "and several times nearly caused my death. All remedies failed and doctors said I was incurable. Then Dr. King's New Discovery brought quick relief and a cure so permanent that I have not been troubled in twelve years." Mrs. Soper lives in Big Pool, Pa. It works wonders in coughs and colds, sore lungs, hemorrhoids, laryngeal asthma, eructs, whooping cough and all bronchial affections. 5¢ and $1. Trial bottle free. Guaranteed at Whitesburg Drug Co.

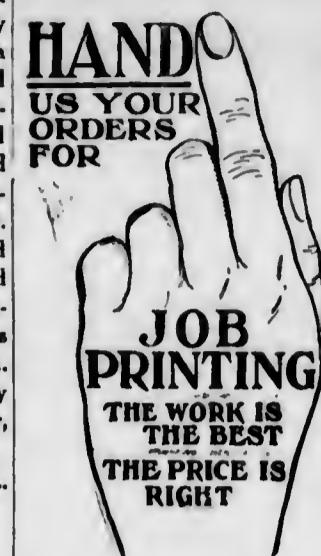

Concrete Also Is New Old.
Concrete itself is, of course, very old. The concrete stairs of Colchester and Rochester castles still show the marks of the encasing boards; the dome of Agrippe's Pantheon, which is 142 feet in diameter, is of concrete; and fragments of concrete buildings are found in Mexico and Peru.
